Dear Friends,

It is with great pleasure and excitement that I invite you to join us on our 11 Day Footsteps of Faith tour through Scotland and the Reformation.

During our trip, we won't just be admiring Scotland's rugged landscapes and ancient castles, but also delving into a pivotal period of its past: the Scottish Reformation. Our journey will take us through the stunning scenery that is so often associated with Scottish identity, from the misty lochs to the dramatic coasts. But our trip is about more than scenery; it's about the people and the ideas that transformed this nation.

We will walk in the footsteps of those who navigated this seismic shift. We will explore how this movement influenced everything from art and education to the establishment of the Kirk as the moral center of society. By looking into the story of the Reformation, we can better understand the Scottish character—a blend of fierce independence, intellectualism, and deep-seated resolve.

The story of the Reformation is a tale of shifting power and fierce convictions. It was a time of immense change, when figures like John Knox challenged the established Roman Catholic Church and fought for a new Presbyterian order. This monumental shift not only altered the spiritual heart of Scotland but reshaped its politics, its society, and its very national identity.

As we explore historic sites across the country, we'll walk the same streets as these reformers and revolutionaries. We'll visit places where key events unfolded. By visiting these landmarks, we can better understand the sacrifices and struggles that molded modern Scotland.

This trip offers a chance to experience the depth of Scottish culture - its music, literature, and enduring spirit of independence. But most importantly, it allows us to connect with the powerful history that has made Scotland what it is today.

The price of our tour includes first-class hotels, most meals, all scheduled tips and transfers, an outstanding tour director and sightseeing in a deluxe motorcoach. We look forward to having you join us on this trip of a lifetime.

NOW is the time to make plans and reserve your place on the tour as space is limited and we expect will sell out quickly. Don't miss out on this opportunity to experience the history, culture and remarkable scenery of Scotland!

Sincerely,
Rev. Andy Gans

YOUR DAY BY DAY ITINERARY

TUE, SEP 1 - CROSS THE ATLANTIC

Depart on board your transatlantic flight to Edinburgh, Scotland, arriving the following day.

WED, SEP 2 - ARRIVE EDINBURGH (2 Nights)

Arrive in Edinburgh, Scotland's capital city. A city of great history and beauty. Meet the group at our central hotel (at your cost). Balance of the day for relaxation. (Dinner).

THUR, SEP 3 - EDINBURGH

Set on a series of volcanic hills and divided into Old and New Towns, each with their own distinct character, Edinburgh is known as the Athens of the north for its neo-classical architecture. The city's prestige was further enhanced in 1999 with the opening of the Scottish Parliament. Enjoy a guided sightseeing tour, including Edinburgh Castle, home of the Scottish Crown Jewels and Stone Of Scone, the Royal Mile, with John Knox's House, Princes Street and the New Town (Breakfast and Dinner).

FRI, SEP 4 PITLOCHRY (1 Night)

Follow the course of the River Forth to Stirling, occupying a strategic site which bridges the Lowlands and Highlands. It was here that William Wallace defeated the army of Edward I in 1297, immortalized in Mel Gibson's 'Braveheart'. Following a guided tour of the castle, perched high above the city and a childhood home of Mary Queen of Scots, continue north into the Highlands and our hotel near Pitlochry (Breakfast and Dinner).

SAT, SEP 5 - INVERNESS (2 Nights)

Begin the day by visiting Blair Castle, home of the Atholl family for nineteen generations over seven centuries. Then continue through the lovely Cairngorms National Park north to Inverness, cultural capital of the Highlands (Breakfast and Dinner).

SUN, SEP 6 - INVERNESS

Enjoy a scenic tour of the Highland countryside around Inverness, including the Visitor Center at Culloden Moor, where Bonnie Prince Charlie's Jacobite army was finally defeated by the English troops of King George II in 1746 at the last battle to be fought on British soil. The prince escaped the pursuing English soldiers by disguising himself as a woman and fleeing across the sea to the Isle of Skye, taking with him the last chance of restoring the Stuart kings to the throne. Then pass along the shores of Scotland's most famous lake, Loch Ness, hoping for a view of Nessie, its most famous inhabitant, and enjoy a cruise on its legendary waters (Breakfast).

MON, SEP 7 - FORT WILLIAM (1 Night)

Cross the dramatic and remote Scottish Highlands and cross the bridge at the Kyle of Lochalsh to Skye, one of Scotland's most popular islands. Enjoy a panoramic tour of the rugged landscape and picture-postcard views before crossing back to the mainland, stopping at the WWII Commando memorial at Spean bridge before arriving at our hotel for the evening near Fort William, beneath Britain's highest mountain, Ben Nevis (Breakfast and Dinner).

TUE, SEP 8: OBAN (2 Nights)

Begin with a short drive west to the spectacular Glenfinnan Viaduct, famous the world over as part of the route of the Hogwarts Express, and the view of Loch Shiel, one of Scotland's finest. Stop briefly at Glencoe, site of the infamous Glencoe Massacre of 1692, when 38 members of Clan MacDonald were massacred by forces of King William III. Continue along the shore of Loch Linnhe to Oban, a bustling fishing village and resort (Breakfast and Dinner).

WED, SEP 9 - IONA

Enjoy a trip to Iona, a small island situated off the island of Mull, where St Columba brought Christianity to Scotland in the 6th century. Take a guided tour of the Abbey, including the recently restored museum, and see St. Martin's Cross, a Celtic high cross of astounding preservation from the 9th century. Also visit the ruined Nunnery, actually an Augustinian Priory for women. Free afternoon, maybe to climb Dun I, site of an Iron Age hill fort and the highest point on Iona, or for personal devotions in this most special of places, before returning to Oban for the night (Breakfast and Dinner).

THU, SEP 10 - EDINBURGH (1 Night)

Leave the Oban area and journey south back to Scotland's capital city. As we drive through the gorgeous countryside we'll pass along the 'bonnie bonnie banks of Loch Lomond' as we travel back to Scotland's fair city, Edinburgh, for our last night and a special farewell dinner (Breakfast and Dinner).
