Call to Worship

One Voice: From north and south, from east and west, we come:

All Voices: God's people called to the Table where simple grace nourishes us.

One Voice: From down the street to across town,
from single households to apartment dwellers:

All Voices: God's people are called to community, where we live and serve one another.

One Voice: From every class, every race, every status; from little ones with sippy cups to elders with overflowing hearts:

All Voices: God's people are called to witness to God's hope, to offer peace to a shattered world.

Prayer of Confession

Almighty God, we confess on this World Communion Sunday that we judge others and we play favorites. We are accepting of those who are accepting, but we reject those who seem narrow-minded and closed off to the world. We want to accept everyone except those people. We forget that all of us are made in Your image, and that all of us have sinned and fall short. Forgive us for our pride and arrogance. Forgive us for our selfishness and self-centeredness. Forgive us when we judge and despise others, even when we claim that judging others is wrong. Turn us back to Your path, turn us back to Your love, and guide us in ways to restore and heal relationships. In the name of Jesus, who emptied his pride to the point of dying on the cross, we pray.

Silent Confession

Assurance of Grace

One Voice: Persistently, patiently, lovingly, God pours out grace and joy into our lives, healing our brokenness, forgiving our sin.

All Voices: Loved, we are sent to love; forgiven, we are freed to forgive; graced, we can offer our gifts to everyone we meet. Thanks be to God. Amen.

Communion and The Lord's Prayer (sung)

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, which art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors;
and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.
