Prayer of Confession

O God,
we lead busy lives.
Just coming to church on Sunday mornings often seems like a sacrifice.
There’s so much to do,
so much to worry about.
We read about being an olive tree planted in your house, green and flourishing, under the care of your presence.
Yet, our roots feel planted most anywhere else:
in our duties; in our business relationships;
in our family plans; in our volunteer commitments;
in our efforts to make it in this world.
When we forget who we are,
when the soil of our lives becomes barren,
plant our roots in your goodness and wisdom,
that we may welcome you into our lives.

Assurance of Grace

One Voice: Trust in the steadfast love of God forever and ever.
All Voices: We claim the hope promised by the good news;
One Voice: God welcomes all to this house, even those who have been estranged from God!
All Voices: Thanks be to God for God’s amazing grace.

Saying What We Believe

In Jesus of Nazareth true humanity was realized once for all.
Jesus, a Palestinian Jew, lived among his own people and shared their needs,
temptations, joys, and sorrows.
He expressed the love of God in word and deed and became a brother to all kinds of sinful men.
But his complete obedience led him into conflict with his people.
His life and teaching judged their goodness,
religious aspirations, and national hopes.
Many rejected him and demanded his death.
In giving himself freely for them
he took upon himself the judgment under which all men stand convicted.
God raised him from the dead, vindicating him as Messiah and Lord.
The victim of sin became victor, and won the victory over sin and death for all men.

Gloria Patri

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;
As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be, world without end.
Amen. Amen.

Offering and Offertory

Doxology

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow;
Praise God, all creatures here below;
Praise God above, ye heavenly host;
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.
Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.
